Mundo Aborigen

www.mundoaborigen.com

Situated in a protected National Park, Mundo Aborigen is a reconstruction of an ancient Canary village devoted entirely to the Guanche way of life. This park gives genuine insight into pre-Hispanic culture, with more than one hundred man-size figures set up in lifelike scenes and recorded domestic animal noises in the background to give the whole setting some realism. There is also a small archaeological museum on site. Mundo Aborigen is on the road from Playa del Inglés to Fataga – San Bartolomé de Tirajana, Gran Canaria.
Opening hours: Daily 9am to 6pm.
