Soccer Experience 7s

Another action packed Soccer Experience 7s year

As another year goes by the Soccer Experience 7s leagues look back over a year full of wonderful goals and non-stop slow motion football!

LEAGUE REVIEW

We have seen the emergence of the Soccer Experience Over 35s league which has been a huge success with teams like Exiles Bar veterans - regular drinkers but not regular players - turning themselves into a well groomed side even pushing to finish in the top three this season, and Stringfellas another of the new boys have been a credit to themselves. There really has been a new buzz around the over 35s league, giving players who thought their time was coming to an end a new lease of life!

finishing. Ironcraft's Dave Cheetam rarely goes a game these days without scoring at least two, Gary Boyd still remains one of the league's top marksmen continually driving Taylor's Lounge forward and this season has seen the birth of a new Paul Connelly to L.A. Masters delight banging in goals for fun and coach Steve has made a real difference to lifting Palms Restaurant in the right direction. With top scorers come top goal keepers and there have been plenty, Adam from Hoops has been in outstanding form so far, as has big Meat Loaf for L.A. Masters still brimming with confidence after winning the keeper of the International masters tournament in November. Palms Restaurant keeper Sam Strange, new to the position, is getting better with every game, and that's to mention just a few!

Teams this year have worked even harder to strengthen their sides and it has shown on and off the field with the standard of football rising to a new level once again and this credit must go to the hard work of the captains, with too many names to mention.

Team-wise there have been some dramatic changes with new sides coming in and plenty of movements in the transfer market. The Hole in the Wall side led by Keith Valentine have improved a huge amount this year seeing the year out on the back of a 14 match unbeaten run and Taylor's Lounge are still as dangerous as ever with captain John Parkes finding his new role up front, we have seen the emergence of another terrific Spanish side, Chafiras FC, who have already upset some of the most experienced of sides. Shaine's L.A. Masters teams have also put themselves up for a mention with some courageous performances from Paul Stokes and big Lacey. Ironcraft led by Daz and Dave have taken the over 35s by storm as they go into the new year with a two point lead and a game in hand. We have also seen José's Villa Mitre team bring a taste of South America to the championship league as they hold top spot in their first season. All in all every team has improved, be it with their football or their attitudes towards the game. In conclusion, Soccer Experience has had a fantastic year with more thrills and spills than ever before with slow motion football providing the entertainment once again.

INTERNATIONAL MASTERS 7S

A big highlight for the Soccer Experience players and fans is the annual International tournament and last month there was another football fiesta in southern Tenerife. The third annual Soccer Experience International Masters 7s Tournament was a wonderful success with many fun filled games being played over the three days. Soccer Experience's tournament is rather unique as it is not only recreational with amateur players participating but tournament organiser and ex-professional player Martin Tierney invited along a few of his friends from his playing days. Therefore many players who would never have the chance to play on the same pitch as these top ex-professionals had the opportunity to play against some major ex EPL, SPL and La Liga players!

English Lawyers and Spanish Abogados

It has to be said, some of the play from guys like Nayim and Regi Blinker showed what class they still have today, even as slow motion players! Darren Jackson (ex-Celtic, Scotland) Nicky Summerbee, (ex-Manchester City), Nayim (ex-Barcelona, Spain), Reggi Blinker (ex-Celtic, Holland) and Jim Duffy (ex Celtic) were the mainstay of the Carlsberg all-star team who took the main tournament title.
