Piers Morgan's Life Stories

ITV / 5th September, 9:00pm

Piers Morgan returns to host a new series of intimate interviews all conducted in front of a live studio audience.

His first guest is singer, rapper, dancer, model and television presenter Alesha Dixon. Born in 1978 in Hertfordshire, she first found fame with the all-female trio Mis-Teeq before the group split up in 2005 when she launched a career as a solo artist. She appeared on Strictly Come Dancing in 2007 and won the contest.

Now she joins Piers to talk about the trauma she experienced as a child when her mother was the victim of domestic violence. She relates how, after finding fame with Mis-Teeq and as a solo artist, she lost her record contract and found out that her husband was having an affair - all in the space of a few weeks.

F1: Grand Prix Qualifying

BBC1 / 6th September, 12:10pm

Suzi Perry introduces live coverage of qualifying for the Italian Grand Prix at Monza.

Mercedes drivers Nico Rosberg and Lewis Hamilton will hope to continue their dominant form which has put them at the top of Formula 1's Championship standings with the rivalry between the pair intensifying following the pair's collision at Spa.

Rosberg has had the upper hand over his British teammate in qualifying so far in 2014 and he will hope it continues in Monza, where the race has been won from pole 11 times in the last 14 years.

In 2013, Red Bull's Sebastian Vettel claimed pole position and put in a dominant performance to win the race.
